Regardless of where you are located, when it comes time to sell my place or buy a new one, you will be my agent of choice. I really enjoyed working with you."

"Maria - A quick note to say "thank you" for your hard work in selling our apartment. Your personable approach, natural warmth and direct honesty were a refreshing change at a time when stress levels are naturally high. At all times throughout the selling campaign and the subsequent sale procedure I felt confident that you had our best interests at heart. It is testament to your absolute professionalism that we had potential buyers looking at our property before the photos even hit the internet. I cannot convey how relieved we were to have a generous offer on the table before even our first "open house". Jon and I are happy to recommend you as an agent and we wish you all the best for your future endeavours."

Sue-Ann Flyght,

"Maria, just wanted to say a big thank you for your help in the purchase of my new unit. You certainly made the experience much more straight-forward than I expected. You were professional, friendly, and went above and beyond many times! I would have absolutely no hesitation in recommending you to others looking to buy or sell in the area. Thanks again."

"Maria. Hello, I was impressed with your assistance recently with the purchase of the apartment for my daughter, I wanted to write to say just how impressed I was with everything. From our initial meeting, a warm welcome, to the understanding way you negotiated the right price for me, your professionalism, the way you asked the right questions and immediately understood my needs and only took me to properties that would suit my requirements, something I sincerely appreciated, as time is of the essence when a busy schedule and minimum time available to spend looking was on the criteria. I appreciated your immediate follow up to my questions and your caring manner, your respectful, honest feedback and I felt so genuinely valued throughout the whole process, you reassured me when I had doubts and you were right, the property was perfect and my daughter absolutely loves living there. Thank you for your attention to detail and for the perfect experience. Next time I am looking for a property I will be contacting you immediately as I know in my heart you will look after my needs and find the ideal property once again. I wish you well and I recommend you highly to anyone looking to either purchase or sell their property. Thank you, thank you, thank you! I feel as though I have made a wonderful friend."
